The following is taken from the research of distant cousin, Robert Cady Gates:

"The Ancestry and World War I Letters of William Galbraith Stewart, Jr (1896-1935)" (1995) by Robert Cady Gates.

John Potter settled in Farmington, Wharton Township, Fayette County, PA in January 1787. He came from Elizabeth, Essex County, NJ where he was born in November of 1748, son of John Potter of Elizabeth, NJ. Before coming to Fayette County, Captain John Potter had been an officer in the American Revolution and had fought with Washington's army when it crossed the Delaware to attack the British at Princeton and Trenton [DAR records]. He married four times and had nineteen children.

The following is from a letter written by James Kimble Bothwell of Clay City, IL to his brother, George Benson Bothwell, Breckenridge, Caldwell County, MO, dated April 23, 1895. [These bothers were sons of James Bothwell and Charlotte (Potter), daughter of John Potter]: "As to the questions you ask about Grand Father Potter, I can't tell you anything more than you know, mother used to talk about him when we were children. My recollection is that he belonged to a Company of Minute Men in Elizabeth New Jersey and as a kind of Honor Gard. His brother, Jabez, was in the regular army during the war, as I recollect. She [mother] often talked about Uncle Jabez. He was an old bachelor and made his home with his father. Grand Father (Potter) moved to Pa. some time after the war and settled on the east side of Loral [sic Laurel] hill mountain about 2 miles west of what is now the town of Smithfield, and some 16 miles east of Union Town, then called Beasontown, on the west side of the Loral hill. Fort Necessity built by Washington at the Little Meadows, when fighting Indians, is about half way between. The old national road runs close by it on top of Loral hill. I saw the old embankment in 1836, the day Vanburen [Martin Van Buren] was elected. The old military trail, travelled by Braddock, started from Alxndra [sic Alexandria] Va and passed over the mountains to what is now Pattis Burgh [sic Pittsburgh]."

John Potter's daughter Charlotte, wife of James Bothwell, wrote the following reminiscences meant for her children: "I was born in the year 1788, January 22, in the State of Pennsylvania, Fayette county; the daughter of John Potter, and Rachel, his wife. In the year 1810, I was married to James Bothwell, son of Alexander and Catherine Bothwell, of New Geneva. After we were married, we lived in the State of Maryland, Allegheny County until 1814; we then moved to the State of Ohio, into what was then Athens, but now Vinton County, where we remained until last June, when I came to Illinois. My husband died in 1863. It was just fifty-three years from the day we were married till the day my husband was buried.

My parents were born in the State of New Jersey, Essex county. My mother was raised in Elizabethtown. She was the daughter of Thomas and Rachel Thompson. My father, John Potter, was born November 23, 1748. He was a soldier in the Revolutionary War, a captain of a company under Washington and served until peace was made with England. My father moved with his family to Pennsylvania, Fayette county, in the year 1787, and bought a farm on Braddock's Road, twenty miles east Uniontown, and kept entertainment for travelers, and lived on the same farm till he died on November 1826. My father lived thirty-nine years on the same farm, and served as magistrate thirty-six years. In Pennsylvania, magistrates were not chosen by vote, but were appointed by the governor, and held office during good behavior. He was a surveyor, and did what surveying was done in his vicinity. The national turnpike, that crossed the Allegheny Mountains, passed through my father's farm, and by his house. My mother died January 17, 1795--the month I was seven years old. In two years my father married again.

Capt. John POTTER's first two wives died before he left Elizabethtown (now Elizabeth in Union County) for Pa. His children by his first wife, Hepzibath Allison, were John, Mary, Josiah and Mary. He had three children by his second wife, Sarah Plume. All but Charles died by 1783, most at birth. Seven of his 19 children didn't make it to adulthood.

MARRIAGES: NOTE: Somewhere these marriages were either recorded wrong or the researcher was mistaken, as the dates I have found do not work.. Neither do the dates agree with Charlotte Potter Bothwell's notes to her family; she wrote that her mother died in 1795, when she was only seven years old, and that her father married again in two years. I have compiled the dates as sensibly as I can.

Ansel Edmond and Harriet Newell Barney Stevens

Linda L. Tope Trent

Ansel Edmond¹ [or Edwards] Stevens was born 2 October 1812,² presumably in Herkimer County, New York,³ to Edmund and Rebecca Bushnell Stevens.⁴ He married the widow Harriet Newell Barney Osgood⁵ on 25 March 1843.⁶ Their marriage occurred in Lake County, Ohio.⁷ Harriet N. Barney, the daughter of Benjamin and Nancy [Potter] Barney, was born 25 April 1818, in Jefferson County, New York.⁸

Ansel and Harriet had the following four children:

James Hadley Stevens born 5 July 1844, in Painesville, Lake County, Ohio

William Edward Stevens born 25 February 1849

Howard Barney Stevens born 22 January 1851⁹

Louisa G. Stevens born about 1858¹⁰

In 1841, Mr. and Mrs. Stevens (Mrs. Osgood), taught at the Ashtabula Academy.¹¹ A "Mr. Green was obliged to leave [the Academy] in the spring term of 1842. Mr. Stevens and Mrs. Osgood continued at the school during the summer. In the fall a more inviting field was offered them in Painesville Academy. They taught there several years. Mrs. Osgood became Mrs. Stevens at the close

¹ Most researchers agree that he was named after his father Edmond, and is not Edward.

² Rowe, Romelia, Births, Marriages, Deaths, and Obituaries 1895-1974, lists Stevens with an "s."

³ Based on census records of 1810 and 1820.

⁴ Herkimer County Surrogate Court. Herkimer, New York. File #06844.

⁵ Married Orsamus Osgood (son of Emory and Cynthia Osgood). Orasmus was born April 20, 1813, he married Harriet July 25, 1839, in Dayton, and died September 23, 1841 in Portage County, Ohio. Info taken from Rowe's Book of Births, etc. and Montgomery County Marriages Vol. A-2 pg. 77.

POTTER

From the Pioneer Women of the Western Reserve. p.34

Mrs. Edward Potter, who was a daughter of William Austin of Albany, N.Y. spent her girlhood near Coshocton. Ohio, where her father's family emigrated in 1807 (believe 1817 correct) The first slaves were sold in N.Y. State and passed from the father of Martin Van Buren to the father of Lucy Austin, and the son and daughter of these two slaves came with the family to Ohio, Jane, the daughter, acting as Lucy's nurse. After the death of her parents, Lucy's home was with her guardian until she was sent to school, (a select school) at Zanesville, Ohio. (note: guardian's name was Judge Thayer) One of her class mates there was the daughter of Gov. Cass of Michigan She came to Warren, Ohio as Mrs. Potter in 1820 (1824 correct) and her home was on a farm about two miles north of town, until the death of her husband in 1879, after which time she resided with a daughter in Newton Falls, (Mrs. Rice) surviving her husband ten years"

Note: Lucy Austin Potter kept a diary for many years---she relates that her Negro nurse Jane got frightened and homesick enroute to Ohio so Mr. Austin gave her one of his best horses and let her return to N.Y. state. Mrs. Austin was Lucy Clossen, the second wife of William and she passed away in N.Y. before he made the journey to Ohio with their daughter Lucy. He left many children by his first marriage in N.Y. state around Albany. Lucy relates how, after the battles in the Rev. war around their home, her mother would go out and search among the wounded and dead to see if her William was among them The Diary is in the possession of Josephine Wilson Scott and her descendants.

Verified by tombstone record in Newton Falls Cemetery

Father was born in Ireland in May 1818 in Cairn Kerry, County Tyrone, Ireland. He came to Austintown with Colwell Porter and lived with him and his family in Austintown for a number of years.

Allen Wilson was my uncle who lived in Hubbard. He was at father's wedding and very likely bought the marriage license for father.

(My Mother) Catherine Potter Wilson born in Warren (see Tombstone)
died January 30, 1892

(My Grandmother) Lucy Clossson Potter died 1889

I think Pittstown is in Renaseleer Co.

Questions

I doubt that Joseph Wilson was born in Ireland as one history says because he was son of Allen Wilson (which history says died in Ireland) and in the Warren court records one Allen Wilson (an uncle) made application for the marriage license of Joseph Wilson and Catharine Potter. (I see Catharine Potter Wilson lived until 1892 and Lucy Clossen Potter died 1889).

Wonder where Edward Potter was born. One history says they were natives of New Jersey, coming here via Washington Co., PA.

I find that one "Haus Claessen" settled in 1614 in Rensselaersrych (colony in NY) and one Gysbert Claessen from Amsterdam settled about 1631 there. They were from the German Palatinate (same as Heuguenot) protestant refugees to this country. Your Lucy may have been descended from one or the other of them.

crop of wheat was generally grown or sprouted, much to the displeasure of the housewife and joy of the whisky distiller. The latter found his grains half malted by nature, while the former could hardly restrain her loaves from running. Every public road was almost impassable, and some of the recent emigrants left the West, discouraged and disgusted."

OTHER EDUCATIONAL MATTERS.

To those who are interested in the cause of education the following copy of an old school contract may be of interest:

"This article, between the undersigned subscribers of the one part, and Jabez P. Manning of the other, witnesseth, That said Manning doth, on his part, engage to teach a school at the schoolhouse near the center of Youngstown for the term of one quarter, wherein he engages to teach reading, writing, arithmetic, and English grammar; and, furthermore, that the school shall be opened at 9 o'clock A. M., and closed at 4 P. M. on each day of the week (Saturday and Sunday excepted), and on Saturday to be opened at 9 and closed at 12 o'clock A. M. And we, the subscribers, on our part, individually engage to pay the said Manning one dollar and seventy-five cents for each and every scholar we subscribe, at the end of the term; and we furthermore agree to furnish or to bear the necessary expense of furnishing wood and all other things necessary for the use of the school.

"Furthermore, we do engage that unless, by the 6th day of April of the present year, the number of scholars subscribed amount to thirty-five that the said Manning is in no way obligated by this article.

"Furthermore, we allow the said Manning the privilege of receiving five scholars more than are here specified.

"J. P. MANNING.

"Youngstown, March 31, 1818.

"The township was first divided into school districts on May 22, 1826. There were seven districts and two fractional districts. The first or center district, which included the present city and some additional territory, contained fifty-four householders. The whole township, as then enumerated, contained 206 householders, of which twelve were women."

Some further reminiscences of the early inhabitants of Youngstown may be found in a letter from Roswell M. Grant, uncle of General U. S. Grant, which is published, in part, in the chapter on the Settlement and Organization of Mahoning County.

EARLY AMUSEMENTS.

Though our forefathers were without the theater, the moving picture show, the trolley car and the automobile, they were by no means destitute of amusements, and most of them of a healthy and beneficial kind. Debating societies were frequently held, at which such subjects as the following were debated. "Whether, is the intrinsic value of an article or the probability of obtaining the price to be made the rule in selling?" "Is slave-holding proper or improper?" "Ought the Mahoning to be a public highway or not?" Then there were the huskings and logging-bees, the athletic sports and dances, "Sister Phoebe," and kicking the blanket. The bill of fare at a logging in 1817, in which the Hon. Shelden Newton (then a young man) participated, was bread, raw pork, raw onions, and whisky. We have since improved on that diet. In relating the circumstance, he said that in those days "all men raised what they ate and made what they wore, all business transactions were conducted by simple barter, that money was only used

POWER MECHANICS

Instructor Robinson works with two members of Power Mechanics class held in the bus body. They are studying a lawn mower engine on an auto lift used as a bench. The school has normally packed here has been moved outside.

Role of Industrial Arts In Education of Youth

The city and township of Hubbard are divided on the subject of increasing millage for education. The school population has increased tremendously and this is the basic reason for the request for increase in millage.

By a narrow margin last November, the 4-mill school support levy was defeated. Last May, it was defeated again, by a more substantial margin. This November, the levy will appear again on the ballot.

Part of the need for increased money for the Hubbard School system could be saved by any voter who would take one half hour to visit the power mechanics lab in the high school here.

Philosophy of education enters in. Is this power mechanics lab important to the education of the 70 boys who are taking instruction there? Is the $220 the instructor, Lee Jay Robinson, spent on lawn mower engines important to the knowledge these boys have when they leave school to get a job in an area depressed by the federal government as depressed?

Why aren't classrooms equipped with the textbooks and for expensive instructional materials. Why $220 for lawn mowers?

For one thing, it takes time to become familiar with the simple procedures of a shop. A boy must learn the difference between an open-end wrench and some other tool.

The four-cycle Briggs and Stratton lawn mowers are used as work benches. Shop management is something learned in a shop, not extrinsically from a textbook.

This country is mechanized and needs power mechanics.

The 80 boys in the Power Mechanics I course will move into the Power Mechanics II next year. They will learn auto engines in 1935 auto engine has been donated, transmissions and rear and axles.

These things which will give these boys working tools with which to enter the working world.

According to Anna Wheeler, a member of the Board of Education, 70 per cent of the children attending public schools will not enter college.

The education received by this 70 per cent in public school supported elementary and secondary schools is important to them.

In the bus garage where Power Mechanics I is being held, there isn't even a place for the boys to lay their hands. They enter the classroom through the front garage door which counts up to let cold blasts of wind enter during the winter. There is no rest room.

The hydraulic lift for auto commonly seen in garages are used as work benches. The buses have been taken from the building, while classes are in session. There are 16 complete sets of tools in the shop for 60 boys.

The plan developed by the Board of Education for solving this condition is to enlarge the bus garage and to move several other shop courses into the present bus storage area next year, the high schools expect another increase in number and this means more classroom space needed in the main building without housing several shop courses.

What will the four-mill levy buy? It will buy more space for the boys studying power mechanics, and it will buy time and space for the main building.

Fire Hits Devine Super Market

Fire broke out early Monday in the rear of the Devine Super Market when a milk canister fell and tipped over, setting off a fire in the rear of the building. Some 20 men were present, including 100 N. Main St. firemen. The fire was extinguished by the fire department. The fire caused a loss of $1,000. The fire caused a loss of $1,000.

Samuel P. Vail's middle name was no doubt Potter, his mother's maiden name; it is known that his eldest son was named Edward Potter Vail, a circuit judge in Decatur, IL. There is a slight discrepancy here; according to the article Samuel Vail was married at age 25 (hence in 1805) but ~~son~~ Samuel P. was born on 8 Oct 1803 as the second son. It seems likely that the article was in error and Samuel Vail was born about 1770-1775, not 1780; his wife Hannah was born about 1772. Allegheny County is close to Fayette county and Samuel Vail could easily have known the Potter family.

Other Potter families

We could find no connections with the well-researched families of Deacon Samuel Potter (to New Jersey 1678), or of Marmaduke Potter (to New Jersey 1686).

Hannah and her Brothers

None of this gives a clue as to where in New Jersey our John Potter came from. My father knew only of two sons: William (his ancestor) and Samuel who died unmarried. There is no tradition in the family that Hannah had brothers who fought in the Revolution, although the Illinois article is definite about this. The writer in 1872 had access to the memories of Hannah Potter Vail's son, born 25 years after the Revolution and still living, who could be expected to know about his four uncles.

Hannah's military brothers, if any, must have been born before about 1765 at the latest, hence would have been her older brothers. The Abstracts of Revolutionary War Pension Files list includes 4 Potters:

Amos, NJ Line, S1075, appl 17 Aug 1832 Essex Co NJ aged 74, sol's bro Jacob Potter of Essex Co NJ made aff'dt in 1833 & referred to his uncle Capt Samuel Potter who lived near him for 20 yrs & also refers to Isaac Potter the son of Capt Samuel Potter.

Jacob, Cont & NJ Line, S3711, sol was b 20 Aug 1755 in Essex Co NJ & he lived there at enl & he appl there 17 Aug 1832, sol had enl with his bro Amos Potter & had srv under Capt Samuel Potter, Capt J.R. Potter & Lt David Potter, sol referred to his wife & "boys" but gave no names.

Joseph, NJ Line, S40283, appl 9 Jun 1818 Butler Co OH aged 69, in 1829 sol had no family.

Joseph, NJ Line, R8373, appl 16 Feb 1848 Delaware Co OH aged 90, sol stated he lived "between" Essex & Middlesex Cos in NJ but enlisted in Middlesex Co NJ.

Of these, Amos and Jacob were sons of Daniel Potter and grandsons of Deacon Samuel Potter; strangely, they did have a sister Hannah, who died 1776 age 23. The first Joseph Potter was probably among the many descendants of Deacon Samuel who went to Butler Co., OH. The second Joseph was probably from the area of Woodbridge, NJ (a place from which a John Vail, born 1770, went to Coshocton Co, OH; his spouse was named Hannah). No known connection. It is possible that John Potter's son Samuel, listed by my father as unmarried, might have been one of Hannah's soldier brothers.

Hannah's brothers were surely born in New Jersey, and the impression gained from the Illinois article is that their father, John Potter, was a farmer in what must have been New Jersey. Just possibly the brothers could have enlisted in Pennsylvania, perhaps Allegheny County where Hannah's future husband Samuel Vail lived.

Dear Roena:

When last I wrote you, I was about to go on a 3-week visit to my Hayner cousin in Germany (recall that my greatgrandfather William S. Potter, brother of Hester, married Sarah Anna Haner). The visit went well — I had a lot of fun, spent the time with my cousin who has spent the last 35 years in a wheel chair after getting polio in 1959. She was very active, interested in family, and writing poems on her computer. Quite a woman! Her husband drove me all around and we took a side trip of 4 days in Munich.

Answering a question you raised once: yes, I have been several times to the Ohio Genealogical Society Library in Mansfield (am a member of OGS) which is pretty good on Ohio history, in a newly adapted historic old mansion. I have also visited once the Western Reserve Historical Society genealogical library in Cleveland, of which I am a member (very complete) and also many times at Ohio Historical Society Library in Columbus (of which I am a member). I am 50 miles NE of Columbus, 100 mi SE of Cleveland, 25 mi S of Mansfield. I've been working on three different branches of my father's family: Miller, Potter, Udall; I plan to put out THE MILLER AND UDALL FAMILIES OF PORTAGE COUNTY, OHIO perhaps in 1996; then on to the Potter family. Finally, the Haner family of Wyandot County, Ohio - a subset of the book I published in 1991 called A HANER/HAYNER FAMILY IN AMERICA.

Enclosed is a copy of a 4-page summary I recently prepared in order to put my thinking on early Potter history into focus. I hope you will look it over and send any comments., I feel sure that Captain John Potter of Fayette County is not our ancestor.

The enclosed summary of JOHN POTTER's origins might serve as a rough guide for part of an introductory chapter in our Potter book.

I believe it is possible that our John Potter, whose farm in NJ was trashed by the British, may have gone to Westmoreland Co. PA right after the war. He was censused there in 1790 with 2 females, presumably his wife and his unmarried 18-year old daughter Hannah. A few years later his married son William Potter (father of Hester) showed up in neighboring Fayette Co. PA where a child Edward Potter (Hester's brother) was born in 1793 (mention of Fayette Co. PA in two different Bibles). Do you have any record of where your ancestor Hester Potter was born on 31 Jan 1791? Was it in NJ or in PA?

I am in touch with living descendants of Judge Samuel P. Vail who married Wealthy Farwell in Coshocton Co. and went to Schuyler County, IL. It is through an 1872 writeup of Samuel P. Vail that we learn that our John (Hannah's and William's father) had 4 sons who fought in the Revolution. Have you ever heard any tradition to that effect?

To make the descendants of Hester Potter Haley complete, I need FGS sheets of Florence Buda, including all descendants, address of your cousin Anna, etc. Also of course, I wonder if your brother Hollis or your brother Albert had any children and/or grandchildren.

I would like you to send all FGS sheets you may have giving the other children of Hester Potter Haley [William P Haley, John Haley, Potter Haley, and "our little girl"].

In addition, have you any FGS sheets on your father's aunt Martha Mikesell, his uncle James (married Catharine Lehman), and their descendants?

Better yet, if you will be home, I would like to visit you, perhaps overnight, on my way to or from the biennial Hayner Family Reunion which is at Alexandria, VA, July 27-28. Will you be at home either on the 26th or 29th-30th? If I get to meet you, we can go over what you have and I can take some with me for copying.

At the reunion, I will be staying with a distant Hayner cousin who lives at Sterling, VA, not far from Alexandria. Unfortunately, my brother in Rockville died last August 16th, and his wife died 3 weeks later, so I have no occasion to visit Rockville any more. I would like to meet you, however, if at all possible.

Working on three families at once is a 3-ring circus, but I love it. I am sending the enclosed 4-page summary to 6 or 8 people, including Marian Reid, Donna Potter, Shirley Drain, and Joan Cleland, a Vail descendant.

Have a good Spring and Summer!

love —
Franklin

Dear Roena:

Since writing you, I received considerable material from Marian Carol Reid, P.O. Box 824, Citrus Heights, CA 95611-0824 in which she included a very interesting letter written July 30 1848 by your ~~great-great-grandmother~~ great-great-grandmother Hester Potter Haley to her brother Edward Potter in Warren, Ohio. Is Clinton Township in Fulton County?

This was the last letter she ever wrote; she died before mailing it and her son William P. Haley added a note at the end. I made this copy for you to keep or, in case you already have it, give the copy to someone in your family.

You will note she spelled her name Healy but her son spells it Haley. Her brother William whom she mentions in the letter is my own great-grandfather, who had moved to Wyandot County, Ohio to the town of Marseilles, south of Upper Sandusky. She mentions that she had not heard from William since they left Holmes County (which is next to Knox County where I live in Gambier, OH).

Of course, all these Ohio connections are pure chance for me- I was born in St. Louis, MO and am here because I am (or was) teaching at a college in Ohio. My grandmother Ella Potter Miller was born in Wyandot County and William moved to northern Missouri in 1864 or thereabouts.

I am enclosing a corrected printout of my meager data on the Haley family, as well as a corrected general summary (on yellow paper). Please discard any previous printouts -- I have changed many numbers -- I know now that my William Potter was the 9th child (P19) rather than the 8th child (P18) as I earlier thought.

Marian Reid send copies of some Bible records that I had never seen. I think we are making headway on the POTTER genealogy.

I have been unable to get in touch with any living descendants of Hester's brothers and sisters Elizabeth Young, Chrissie Rice, Mary Tylee, Caty Bissell, or Hannah Waugh.

So far, we have ^{current} data for only the Haley family and the two brothers Edward and William Potter.

Looking forward to hearing from you ---

Franklin

I can't find Fairfield PA on my map, altho it seems to be indexed as being near Gettysburg.

Dear cousin Roena -

It has been almost 4 years since you wrote about our Potter family. I am now returning to the struggle to get a more nearly complete record of that family and am entering data into my computer file. I have heard from Marian Reid of Citrus Heights, CA, and am enclosing a printout of her branch, descended from Edward Potter, brother of your Hester and also brother of my own William Potter. This illustrates the degree of completeness which I am aiming for: ALL descendants in both male and female lines, down to the present time; mailing addresses and occupations where known, for past and present members.

I also enclose a Summary of the Potter family -- yours is from P12, Marian's is from P13, mine is from P18.

You have already sent your direct line (copy enclosed) but it seems inconceivable that you are an only child, your father was an only child, and your grandfather was an only child. Indeed, your letter of 19 Sep 1990 mentions that your grandfather William Potter Bayes had a brother (name not given).

I hope you will send me as much as you can so that the P12 line can be recorded as completely as the P13 and P18 lines are.. If more convenient, just send me a lot of Family Group Sheets and I will copy them and return them to you.

On one sheet that I am sending is an account of the BISSELL family (P19) about which I have the names of some nieces and nephews (from Catherine Potter Bissell's will which I saw when in Warren and Youngstown a week or so ago). It occurs to me that the niece Lucy Dill, the niece Sarah Rockhill, and/or the nephew John Calvin Marquis could be from a Haley daughter who married Dill, Rockhill or Marquis. I am pursuing what leads I have on these ^{nieces} nephews. Catherine Bissell was sister of your Hester as well as sister of my William.

Please send me your phone number. I'd like to talk with you.

I am a retired physics professor at Kenyon College, born 1912 in St. Louis, MO where my father was a lawyer and judge. His grandfather was William S. Potter, brother of your Hester Potter Haley. Dad made a list of the family in 1902 which I have in which the name Haley is mentioned, but he did not know the first name of James. I am in your father's generation -- your father's grandmother P121 and my grandmother P187 were first cousins. By coincidence, my twin brother Henry A. Miller 2nd, worked for many years as a clerk at NIH in Bethesda. He and his wife live in Rockville. I saw him a month ago when he came out to Ohio to be present at the dedication of the new Miller Observatory on our campus, named for me--- Henry is not in very good health. (we are both 81, will be 82 in Sept.) I hope to eventually put out a Miller-Potter family history book.

I would surely appreciate your sending some family group sheets.

Sincerely,

Franklin

Dear Franklin,

Beautiful morning here in Carroll Valley and I hope you are having one just like it.

It is exciting that there are three of us working on our family history and it looks like we have some good leads to pursue. I have sent the same material to Marian that I'm sending to you.

Concerning the DAR papers that are enclosed: When I was home in Ohio a year ago I talked with the registrar of the Chapter in Wauseon but we had a bad phone connection and so I wrote to her when I returned to CV and she sent just the application to me. I wanted to ask her to send copies of all the documentation but they seem to keep their files in a lock box at the bank and since she seemed rather elderly I was reluctant to ask her to do this since I didn't know how convenient it would be for her to have them duplicated. I thought I would contact her again when I went home in the fall and offer to help her do this. Unfortunately, my brother became more incapacitated as the months went by and I have been unable to return to Ohio. He is now in the VA Medical Center in Martinsburg, W VA and I go about once a week to see him and he is considerably better so I do anticipate that I will be going back to Ohio around the first of Aug. Well, this is the long way around to get to the point that the John, Jr., the ReV soldier as documented by Grace Patterson should also be our common ancestor except that our William Potter was born before John married his first of his four wives. I do plan to go to Ohio the first of Aug. to spend some time at my nephews and will have an opportunity to see if I can get the documentation on John if you think it would be of help to us. Very soon I should get down to the DAR library and look at the other Nat. numbers that Grace Patterson mentioned. One of them is a very early number and less documentation was required or they didn't save it.

If you have suggestions as to what I should check at Nat. Archives and DAR Library, please let me know and I will try to get down there within a couple weeks.

Do you use the Ohio Genealogical Society Library in Mansfield? I would like to spend a couple days there while I'm home.

Thanks so much for the data you have sent. It was exciting to get the letter written by my 2nd great grandmother and her son William. Marion sent them also so I will share a copy with my cousin Anna Buda. She will be excited about receiving it. If you want a family sheet on Aunt Florence (Bayes) Buda's family I can send it.

I now have a computer but don't know how to use it. You all are so organized I feel like I'm struggling in the dark ages. I have PAF installed on my hard disk. May I ask what genealogy software you use? Hopefully I have sense enough to learn how to use the thing!

must stop and run this up to the Post Office. Fairfield is just two miles away. I live ten miles west of Gettysburg, in Adams County.

I'm certainly sorry that I didn't know that I had a relative living and working so close for so many years. I still have my little brick house just off Conn. Ave. extended and about five miles from Rockville. It's rented but I keep a room in it so I can stay when I go down to DC. It's wonderful that your twin brother could be with you for the exciting activities of the dedication of the Observatory. I feel excited for you just thinking about it. My congratulations to you.

I'm certainly glad that you are back to searching the Potter line again and be sure to give me suggestions and I will try to follow up on them.

Thanks again and looking forward to our next big find -

My beef about PAF is that so much of the space of a printout is usually blank unless you have all sorts of data on parents, residence, burial, etc. In other words, it is strictly formatted by fields. On the other hand, the programs I wrote (before PAF, of course) treats the data in free form. PAF is pretty good for direct line research, but I wanted to include all collateral -- for instance you are my 3rd cousin once removed. PAF doesn't have an easy way of identifying all these collateral -- but I like to deal with the living, breathing cousins (such as you) and in 1929 I devised the numbering scheme you see in my printouts, with an initial letter for a g-g-g-grandfather. Starting with a g-g-g-grandfather is far enough back to be interesting, and still close enough to maintain a vestige of tradition. For example, your father's grandmother and my own grandmother were first cousins, and probably knew each other. There was a Haley tradition in my father's memories, etc. Depending on which g-g-g-grandfather I start with, I have various 5-digit code numbers. I can be listed either as P19721 (Potter), as M11521 (Miller), as H49221 (Haner), as M34441 (Mellett), or as M92141 (Mize). My father was a 2nd child and I am an eldest child, so the 3 codes on my father's side all end in 21. My mother was a 4th child, so the two codes on my mother's side all end in 41. I can always add newly-discovered cousins (such as I am now doing for Haley) without having to re-number earlier work.

I am sure PAF can do much the same, but you would have to create quite a few family group sheets.

Earliest Potter and Freeman origins

Now I want to share my thoughts on the earliest origins of our Potter family. I am leaning heavily on the material from you and from Marian Reid. I think there is every chance that we can sort it all out.

First, it now seems clear to me that there were TWO John Potters in Fayette County, PA around 1790. Not until I received a copy from Marian of the Catherine Potter Wilson Bible (daughter of Edward Potter, P13, brother of your Hester) did I realize that our John Potter must have lived a while in Fayette County. (I only learned of the Trumbull County connection about 10 years ago from Donna Potter Phillips' "Potter Profiles". My father never knew of the Trumbull County Ohio residence of his grandfather William Smith Potter; he knew only that William had been a merchant and a miller in Wyandot County OH before coming to Missouri in 1864. I had no reason to search in Fayette Co. PA for my family, although a few years ago I did note a census record of our Edward Potter born in PA. Dad's tradition had it that John was born in England and his son William was born in New Jersey.

The Catharine P. Wilson Bible clearly states that "Edward Potter was born Fayette County Pennsylvania, Sept.20th, 1793." The 1850 census states that Edward's sister Betsey Potter Young was born in PA and from some source we have the date as 31 Mar 1796. All this is in good agreement with the statement in the Trumbull County history that John Potter came to Coitsville, OH in 1798. Biography of Edward says he was a

Dear Marian,

Love those brown packets especially those that come as a complete surprise. Thank you so much. We have just had snow storm number fifteen. Have not been able to get to a library all winter.

Yes, we are cousins. I did make a slight adjustment to the relationship chart. Had to slip in my dad and that makes us fourth cousins once removed.

Isn't it remarkable that our grandmother Hester had received an education that would make it possible for her to write such a letter. I love having a copy and thanks so much. Also the photocopy of the pictures. Sorry I don't have a picture of Hester but am inclosing a picture of Catharine (Haley) Bayes.

Will be looking forward to your interpretation of the info. on the DAR application. The last time I was home in Ohio I contacted the Wauseon Chapter Registrar and she made a copy of the application. I felt that it would be imposing on her to ask her to copy the entire file and thinking I would be back to Ohio again during the year I would visit her and perhaps do the copying in her presence. Due to the illness of my brother who has been hospitalized twice and in a nursing home, now down at the VA Hosp. in Martinsburg, W VA, there has been very little free time. His wife died in "88". We built this house 73-76 and I came up here from the DC area in 80 when I retired as we had planned.

Again, great thanks for all the info and look forward to hearing from you soon. Will now hurry off to the post office.

Dear Franklin,

Wonderful to hear you will be traveling to Germany within a few days. I'm sure you will have an exciting and successful trip. Family tradition says our Fickle line to America in 1734 came from "Gustadt"; the Schliermacker/Slaymaker to Am. 1710 from Hesse-Cassel; Wasnick's came ~~1773~~ 1834 from St. Wendel; the Bauers from Krumback at the same time as Wasnicks. I often wonder if I have cousins in St. Wendel or Krumback.

Now to the Potter family for a bit. In the material I'm sending you will note that I found only one Potter Fam. in the material I have searched but many Freeman, Haley, Wilsons/Willsons, Moffatts, McDaniel & Maywells^{Matthews}. These are all surnames of families that intermarried, some moving west thru PA, eastern OH & on west to Holmes Co. I guess it's possible that the Capt. Martin Potter found in the "Colonial Records"; 1738-1743 could have been a ship's Captain even tho he may have owned some land on the MD Eastern Shore. I did find one more entry:

Dear Roena --

Enclosed is my latest update on the Hester Potter family. DESTROY ANY PREVIOUS PRINTOUTS of this family, as this replaces them.

I have gone through all the Family sheets you gave me when I had that very pleasant visit with you in Fairfield. Unfortunately, I now cannot find any record of your military service, which I want to include. My policy for the book is in general not to mention military service, since I would undoubtedly overlook some and it would be bound to be incomplete and unfair. However, I do want to include the records of any who made the supreme sacrifice, such as Charles Buda, and those who were or are career members of the military (such as yourself). This will be explained in the book's preface.

Therefore, please send me a couple of lines about your own service record and your occupation (what sort of assignments you had, and your later work at NIH).

The same is true of education -- I just am afraid to risk leaving out some person's college attendance and/or degrees. So I am leaving them all out, and explaining in the preface.

I am sending 2 copies, one a clean copy, the other marked with items that I hope you can supply. Don't try to write the data on these sheets, unless perhaps a descriptive word or two about occupations (e.g. farmer, insurance agent, roofing contractor, beautician, accountant, etc. I am not using "housewife" or "homemaker").

Also, I want you to send me mailing addresses for all living heads of family that you know of, or the address (and phone number if you have it) of someone in each family who could supply addresses and occupations. Never mind zipcodes, unless you have them. I can easily look up zipcodes at the local postoffice. As we near publication (perhaps next year) I anticipate making a number of phone calls to jog up the distant cousins so would appreciate your giving phone numbers to me if you can, saving the 75-cent Information fees.

As you see, what we now have is an outline (incomplete in many respects). I want to make our book more than just a stud book of who begat whom and when. Let's try to make Hester's line a model for all the other lines!

As we approach publication, I will send out questionnaires to each address, asking them to check their own data, and enclosing an order form for the book, along with a stamped return envelope. This worked well for my Mellett-Hickman book; I had 3200 responses to my inquiries!

If Eleanor is still with you, give her my regards. (I do not have her address in Ohio). Nor do I have her marriage date. Did she and Darrell have any children? I am not sure that I interpret the back of your sheet correctly; the front does not show a date of death for Darrell, but the back shows two dates, one of which may be a date of death. Is your nephew Darrell Deloy Bayes living? if so, where? Please explain.

I also have a question about the wife of John Potter, whose name we do not know (father of William Potter who married Catharine Freeman). You told me that you had some record that his wife was Sarah Wilson, daughter of a John Wilson. Is this perhaps confused with the John Haley and Sarah Wilson who were parents of James Haley? Could there have been two different Sarah Wilsons?

You give the name of your cousin Anna Buda as Anna LeIsle Buda. Is LeIsle the correct spelling of her middle name? could it be Leslie?

Well, cousin -- hope this is not too much for you. Perhaps you could get a letter to me started in WordPerfect and jot down addresses, etc. The you can save the document under some name (such as MILLER1.LTR or POTTER1.LTR) so that you will have a copy that you can retrieve later. You will note that this letter to you is saved as BAYES3.LTR in my WordPerfect files; my next letter to you will be BAYES4.LTR.

Say hello to Albert for me. I enjoyed very much our visit with him.

Love —
Franklin

A note on typography: I formerly used full names of cousins and their spouses all in capital letters and in bold face. (This is how they are on my previous printouts.)

Now I am thinking of using just the surnames in caps, but still the entire name in bold face. Therefore on the enclosed printout you will see a mixture of both methods -- am seeing how they look, trying to decide. I am leaning toward the "standard" way, which you have used at the head of your family group sheets, with only the surnames capitalized. What do you think? Perhaps would let the family relationships stand out a little better.

Miss Mary Fisher (1854 - 1901)

Miss Helen Miller (1854 - 1901)

It was during that first summer in Lancaster (in 1886) that I became acquainted with the very pretty girl who was afterward to become mother of my children. Mr. and Mrs. William S. Potter, Miss's parents, had come to Lancaster from Ohio in 1884 when she was eight years old, so that she was only two when I first saw her. They were living on a farm owned by Mr. Potter near Vinsonburg, the end a half mile southwest of Lancaster. "Old Tip", as it was generally called, had been a splendid little town many years before the War.... When I first came to Lancaster there were still some remains of the old town of "Tip", such as old cellars and foundations everywhere.... As there was not a good school at Vinsonburg, Mr. Potter sent his daughter Miss to Lancaster, where she boarded with the family of Dr. Beckwith and went to the Lancaster school. Dr. Beckwith's house was just west of where Capt. Collier lived, with a vacant lot between them; and on this vacant lot there was a pile of old lumber and logs, the remains of an old town-house house. My first recollection of Miss is when we played together on moonlight nights in the summer of 1888 on this pile of old lumber. We were both small, barefoot children; she was ten and I was just past twelve years old. I cannot remember what we played, but think it was mostly story-telling, for we were both great readers for our ages, loved stories and had good memories. She was a very pretty girl, sweet and well-formed, a little dimple in her cheek, with an oval face, big eyes, and long curls; and I thought she was just about the nicest thing I had ever seen. ... In 1890 there was a big dance at Lancaster on the night of the fourth of July and I had been accepted as a suitable partner to take her to the dance. One of my friends, "Tom" Cook, also had a girl living at "Tip" so he joined our recreation, secured a car and took both girls to the dance that night. We had a fine time and danced till about daylight.... The following winter (1891) we became engaged, although we were actually too young to think of such a thing.... While our courtship was in progress for over four years our engagement was never broken off -- not even a quarrel endangered it until we were married soon after I reached my majority, in 1893.

Ella Mary Potter (1856 - 1897)

Henry Ardeen Miller (1854 - 1937)

It was during that first summer in Lancaster (in 1866) that I became acquainted with the very pretty girl who was afterward to become mother of my children. Mr. and Mrs. William S. Potter, Ella's parents, had come to Lancaster from Ohio in 1864 when she was eight years old, so that she was only ten when I first saw her. They were living on a farm owned by Mr. Potter near Tippecanoe, two and a half miles southeast of Lancaster. "Old Tip", as it was generally called, had been a sizable little town many years before the War.... When I first came to Lancaster there were still some remains of the old town of "Tip", such as old cellars and tumbledown warehouses.... As there was not a good school at Tippecanoe, Mr. Potter sent his daughter Ella to Lancaster, where she boarded with the family of Dr. Rockwell and went to the Lancaster school. Dr. Rockwell's house was just east of where Capt. Cutler lived, with a vacant lot between them, and on this vacant lot there was a pile of old lumber and logs, the remains of an old torn-down house. My first recollection of Ella is when we played together on moonlight nights in the summer of 1866 on this pile of old lumber. We were both small, barefoot children; she was ten and I was just past twelve years old. I cannot remember what we played, but think it was mostly story-telling, for we were both good readers for our ages, liked stories and had good memories. She was a very pretty girl, straight and well-formed, a little demure in her manner, with an oval face, big eyes, and long curls; and I thought she was just about the nicest thing I had ever seen.(In 1870) there was a big dance at Lancaster on the night of the Fourth of July and I had been accepted as a suitable partner to take her to the dance. One of my friends, "Doc" Hays, also had a girl living at "Tip" so we pooled our resources, secured a double rig and took both girls to the dance that night. We had a fine time and danced till broad daylight.... The following winter (1871) we became engaged, although we were entirely too young to think of such a thing.... While the courtship was to continue for over four years our engagement was never broken off -- not even a quarrel endangered it --and we were married soon after I reached my majority, in 1875.

*Thomas Reading, the Commissioner who personally wrote this record, was born in Amwell Township Sept. 27, 1734, and died Dec. 15, 1814. He served as Captain during the Revolution. Reading Township was set off from Amwell by Royal Patent dated July 15, 1730, and named in honor of John Reading, father of Thomas, a large land owner and prominent citizen who later resided at what is now Flemington junction. The present name of the township, Readington, is an abbreviation of Reading Town or Township.

EDITORIAL NOTES AND CORRESPONDENCE

PENSION LIST OF WIDOWS OF REVOLUTIONARY SOLDIERS. Mr. William M. Clevenger, 17 S. Stenton Pl., Atlantic City, writes as follows relative to Samuel Sooy (Vol. IV, p. 75), whose identity was not quite clear:

"Samuel Sooy was son of Richard and Rebecca (Scull) Sooy. He was born in 1754 and died April 28, 1835, and served in the Gloucester County Militia as stated. He was twice married. His first wife was Christianna, daughter of Robert and Mary (Scull) Doughty, born Dec. 27, 1766, died before 1792, and by whom he had Mary who married Constant Bowen, and Sarah who married John Giberson. His second wife was Sophia Ireland, born May 15, 1770, and whom he married Jan. 10, 1792. By her he had Samuel who married Sylvia Conover, Rebecca who married Nicholas Sooy, Leah who married Charles Conover, and Dorcas who married Edward Higbee."

ORANGE BURYING GROUND RECORDS. Mr. Horace Dickerman, 685 Forest Road, New Haven, Conn., writes that Elizabeth Freeman who died Nov. 13, 1732, in her 70th year (Vol. IV, p. 60), was the wife of Samuel Freeman, b. 1662, son of Stephen Freeman, one of the Founders of Newark.
